VOL. III. RALEIGH, N. C., TUESDAY, JUNE 16, 1868. NO. 265.

DAILY SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, Proprietor.

From the New York Herald.

CHASE OR PENDLETON—WIN OR LOSE IS THE QUESTION.

The chances for the next Presidency depend, we believe, upon the action of the Democratic Convention which is to meet in this city on the Fourth of July. The Democratic party, or, as we think it should be called, the Conservative party, has the best prospect for electing its candidate if it act wisely, notwithstanding the military reputation of the radical candidate. The mass of the people have become disgusted with the Jacobinism, corruption and extravagance of the radicals, and earnestly desire a change. They begin to be alarmed for the future of our glorious country under the rule of a faction that is centralizing the government into an oligarchy and military despotism. However much they may esteem General Grant for his military services in conquering the rebellion, they cannot endorse him and are not disposed to cast their votes for him as the candidate of this atrocious party which is working to destroy the Constitution and civil liberty for mere party purposes. The elections that have taken place during the last few months in the States, both on the Atlantic and Pacific sides of the Continent, show unmistakably the current of popular sentiment against the radicals, and there is every reason to believe that even General Grant cannot save this revolutionary party from defeat next November if the Democrats should nominate an acceptable candidate for President.

The question, then, is narrowed down to the availability and suitability of the Democratic nominee. For this position two men loom up prominently above all the rest named—George H. Pendleton and Chief Justice Chase. The former appears to be the favorite of a large party in the West, and the latter of the populous and wealthy Central and Eastern States. The Western Democrats seem to be influenced by their admiration for Mr. Pendleton personally and for his views on questions of national finance, and we freely admit he is a popular man, a brilliant statesman, a patriot, and has, on the whole, broad and correct opinions on financial matters. More than that, we are satisfied his views generally, both on the national finances and the political questions of the day, are acceptable to a majority of the people. But, as we will show presently, he is not an available candidate; for his war record would defeat him, and the moneyed and bondholding Democrats of the North would become either lukewarm or hostile in the contest. Mr. Chase has become the choice of a great part of the Northern Democrats because of his Conservative course on the impeachment trial and of his noble resistance to military despotism in the South and defence of civil rights, and because there is the best prospect of electing him.

We care nothing for men or parties—for Pendleton, Chase, Grant, the democrats or radicals—apart from the interests of the country. We consider only what is best for the welfare of the Republic, and act accordingly. From this motive, and with a view of laying before the people a correct statement of the political situation and the chances in the Presidential contest, we dispatched a special correspondent to Cincinnati to sound Mr. Pendleton on his opinions of the issue and his course on the Presidential question. The result we gave in an interesting report, published yesterday.—The distinguished favorite of the Western democracy received our correspondent in the kindest and frankest manner; but when he learned that the object of the visit was to ascertain and publish to the country the views he might express his countenance assumed a serious aspect. He did not wish to have a conversation just then "with three or four hundred thousand readers of the Herald" (he might have said a million) "before breakfast. However, after a while, his "old smile came back" and he was the same polite and accomplished gentleman. But though he was reticent himself, our correspondent discovered from a near and reliable source what the financial and political platform of Mr. Pendleton is, and it is the one we published yesterday.

But the great and paramount question here is not what Mr. Pendleton may think or how good a President he might make, but can he be elected—can he defeat General Grant and the radicals and thereby restore the country to peace, constitutional order and prosperity? We believe not, and we regret to say so. The memories of the war are yet fresh in the minds of the people, and throughout the North everywhere the people are proud of having put down the rebellion. This is particularly the case with the millions of soldiers who fought in the cause, and their relatives and friends.—With a large part of these this war sentiment would be superior to former party affinations or party considerations. The mass of this numerous class have not lost their prejudices or become educated up to the pure principles of statesmanship and Mr. Pendleton's financial doctrines. The radicals would make terrible havoc on Mr. Pendleton among the people for his anti-war or peace policy and even among a portion of the Democratic party; while, as we said before, the wealthy national bank and bondholding Democrats of the North would become apathetic or hostile. In fact, there is every reason to believe Mr. Pendleton would be defeated and radical, revolutionary and military despotism rule be perpetuated.

On the other hand, if Mr. Chase were nominated, he would not only get the party vote, but that of all the Conservative people and a portion of the Republican vote as well. He is and has always been in accord with the democrats as to the reserved rights of the States, though on the slavery question he differed with them. But that question is dead and buried, never to come up again. As to the National Banks and the financial system that grew out of the war and was a necessity of the war, though Mr. Chase was the author of these we have no reason to believe he would be in favor of perpetuating them in time of peace, if they proved injurious to the country and against the will of the people. He is universally acknowledged an able man and quite capable of occupying the position of President. Indeed, it would be hard to find a man as capable. Then, what is most important just now, he is the staunch defender of the constitution and the supremacy of civil authority over the revolutionary and despotic military policy of the radicals. There is little doubt of his election if nominated by the Democratic Convention. We, have the best authority for saying that "if a military man should be nominated the peace Democrats of the West will bolt, hold another Convention and nominate the Chief Justice."

The question for the Democratic Convention, then, is simply this: either to nominate Mr. Chase and win, or to nominate Mr. Pendleton and lose. It will be no use nominating any negative candidate as a compromise among the political managers. Under these circumstances will Mr. Pendleton, who is an able and a patriotic gentleman, see the welfare of the country sacrificed for personal ambition and the barren honor of a nomination? We appeal to him to forego all personal considerations and give his powerful assistance to nominate Chief Justice Chase, in order to defeat the radical revolutionists, to restore peace, the supremacy of civil rights and Constitutional law all over the country.

PENDLETON AND CHASE.

The press of the North, very generally, in treating upon the Presidential nominees, seem to regard the choice of the National Democratic Convention as lying between Mr. Pendleton, of Ohio, and Judge Chase. We shall not be surprised if several other names will have prominence in the Convention. As a resume of the views of the advocates of Judge Chase's nomination, we insert, on our first page, to day, an article from the New York Herald, which has the merit of being rather more considerate and well put, than usually characterizes the editorials of that paper. It very warmly, now, advocates the claims of Judge Chase; we do not regard it, however, as an authoritative expositor of the views of the Democratic and Conservative masses of the North.

We have no choice of any man in opposition to the nomination of the Convention, which meets at New York on the 4th. of July. We expect to support whoever may be nominated, but Chief Justice Chase is far from being our first choice. His long adherence to the Radical party, after it exhibited a total recklessness of the fundamental principles of the Constitution, and his devotion still to negro suffrage, which, in any view we can take of it, means negro supremacy and negro office holding, in many portions of the South, together with the fact that Judge Chase had an opportunity to defend the Constitution in the McCardle case and failed to do it, from motives of policy, render him, in our judgment, not a proper leader of the Constitutional Union party at this crisis. Nothing, therefore, could induce us to support him but a choice of evils. As between Gen. Grant and Judge Chase, we vastly prefer the latter, for the reason that, under his lead, there is left a hopeful chance of a restoration of the Constitution by the Democrats and Conservatives, while, under Gen. Grant's administration, we consider the Constitution would be a nullity and our Federal Republic among the things that were. Moreover, Judge Chase is a man of ability in civil affairs, and would administer the government ably, according to his construction of the Constitution, while, judging from the past, Gen. Grant would be a mere tool of the Congress, at least, until he got ready to dispense with its services and run the machine "upon his own hook."

We go in for the selection of the best and surest man to defeat Radicalism, without sacrificing the Constitution and the Republic. If Judge Chase is the surest man to effect this object, we shall support him, if nominated. If others are equally certain of success, who have stood up more firmly for the Constitution against the aggressions of the revolutionists, we should prefer them.

BISHOP ATKINSON.—Our attention has been directed to a scurrilous and vindictive attack upon Bishop Atkinson in the Newbern Republican. This disreputable sheet bases the article upon certain statements purporting to have been made by Bishop Atkinson in a recent address in Hartford, Connecticut, extracts from which, as they appeared in the press of that city, we have published. The editor abuses this distinguished and venerable divine because of presumed ill-feeling towards the negroes.

Bishop Atkinson has devoted much time and attention to the moral and social welfare of the colored people, and his present visit North is entirely for this purpose.—He has devoted more time and met with more success in his labors for the advancement of the negroes probably than any person in this State. Some of his friends and admirers have thought he had done too much in this way, yet he is met by a most cowardly and false attack by one professing peculiar love for the negro.

The editor of the Republican has just been elected Secretary of State upon the Radical ticket, and his cowardice, falsehoods and impudence are in strict keeping with the character of the miserable adventurers, into whose hands North Carolina has been placed, through the ignorance and prejudice of the negroes. Who this man is we know not. If a publication in a Northern sheet is to be believed, and which we have never seen denied, he is of infamous private character. His cowardly and indecent attack upon Bishop Atkinson gives proof of a depraved heart, capable of any wickedness.

Those colored people, who are enjoying the benefits of the Bishop's labors, and whose children are daily receiving careful training and education by means of his Christian efforts, can judge of the character of the man whom they have been made to elevate to high and important trusts, through the oaths and obligations of the Leagues; the cowardly and malignant nature of the carpet-baggers, under whom they have placed the gentlemen of the State.

We copy the foregoing from the Wilmington Journal. The infamous attack of the Republican is based upon a recent regretful statement reported to have been made by Bishop Atkinson, in a lecture, in Hartford, Conn., relative to the mortality among the negroes in the South, as especially illustrated by the mortuary statistics of a negro colony opposite Newbern. We had not supposed that any man in North Carolina, in view of Bishop Atkinson's well known efforts in behalf of the educational and moral interests of the colored race, could impugn him on that score, much less that his great purity of character and eminent piety could be so shamelessly assailed. If the Editor of the Republican had not decency enough to refrain from such vulgar defamation, he should have had sense enough to know, that it will give him a notoriety which any man, at all desirous of cultivating the good opinion of those among whom he has squatted, should shrink from acquiring. Some people love prominence, however,—even though it should be a prominence of infamy.

Radicalism respects nothing that is pure, or sacred, or venerable. Only a few days since, the young ladies from different parts of the State, who visited the Commencement at the University, were made the objects of scurrilous vituperation by a Radical letter-writer. This recent attack, from another Radical source, upon the exalted character of the distinguished prelate, whom people of all denominations in North Carolina regard with respect and affection, is a fresh exhibition of the desecrating and demoralizing spirit of this moral and political Jacobinism.

EX PARTE TESTIMONY.

The military authorities in the South, anxious alone, perhaps, for the preservation of order, have lent too willing a ear to the statements of interested and frequently unreliable parties, by which they have been misled, and have too often issued orders and arrested innocent and very worthy parties, on mere ex parte evidence. By this means, military rule has gained an unenviable reputation, and officers, who would otherwise be respected and esteemed, have excited the ill-will of the community. This is much to be regretted. The military and civil authority of the land should be universally (and are) respected in their legitimate spheres, in proportion to the wisdom, propriety and strict adherence to duty, which they observe. When law is enforced with impartiality, when justice is administered with proper strictness and forbearance, and when the innocent are protected and the guilty are punished, the officers of the law are always respected. But where the executors of the law listen to one sided, partial stories, prompted by partizan or personal venom, as has been too much the case, of late, it is impossible to do justly and act impartially.

A number of cases have occurred in North Carolina, where too much credit has been given to ex parte statements. Hence, arrests or processes have been instituted too hastily, involving costs and sometimes inconvenience and injury to innocent persons. In many cases, when these matters have been brought directly to Gen. Canby's notice, to our knowledge he has taken the precaution to examine into the matter before proceeding. In other instances, where, we presume, they have been left to the judgment of others, or when, involving small matters, they have been hastily attended to, the evil of listening to ex parte testimony has been made manifest. The following has been brought to our knowledge, which, though really a small business, illustrates the evil upon which we are animadverting.

Special Orders, No. 131, issued at Head quarters, Charleston, S. C., June 5, 1868, contains the following

EXTRACT:

"IV. It appearing to the satisfaction of the Commanding General that a suit was commenced in the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of New Hanover County, North Carolina, by Halstead Bowden against Jeremiah King, upon a cause of action which arose in the State of North Carolina in 1862, which said action was stayed under paragraph II, General Orders No. 10, series 1867, and that the said Court, in disregard and violation of said Order, proceeded to give judgment therein for the plaintiff in the sum of twenty-two dollars and thirty-two cents ($22.32); and no evidence appearing that the defendant therein did not (?) consent in writing to the entry of such judgment: It is hereby ordered, that said judgment be set aside, vacated and annulled, and the Clerk of said Court be required to enter upon the record of said judgment and sign officially the following certificate:

"'Set aside, vacated and annulled by virtue of Special Orders No. 131, issued from the Headquarters of the Second Military District, dated June 5, 1868.

"(Signed.)

"The Commanding Officer Post of Wilmington, N. C., is charged with the execution of this order."

This was forwarded to Maj. Upham, commanding at Wilmington, who endorsed it as follows:

HEADQUARTERS, MILITARY POST OF WILMINGTON, N. C., June 8th, }

Respectfully forwarded to the Clerk of the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions, who will comply with within instructions and make report of having so complied to these headquarters.

J. J. UPHAM,
Brev. Maj., Capt. 6th Infantry,
Com'dg. Post.

The Clerk of the Court, having made diligent search, reported that no such suit had ever been commenced in his Court, and no such judgment ever had!!

THE WRANGLE BEGUN.—The squabble over the spoils, in view of the probable speedy inauguration of the mongrel regime, has begun to assume quite an excited phase. It was, at one time, supposed that Gen. Abbott would walk over the track for the choice of Senatorships, viz: the long term. It is conceded, anyhow, we believe, that some Yankee is to have that choice, as the Northern element controls the party in the State and dictates terms; but Col. Heaton is said to have entered the lists actively against Gen. Abbott. And thus we have it: Ohio vs. New Hampshire and New Hampshire vs. Ohio, in the great scrub race for the Senatorship from North Carolina! We have heard that Col. Heaton has addressed a circular to the members of the incoming Legislature, urging his claims to the position,—the chief of which is that he has been in the State five years, while other important aspirants have only been in the State three years! If any of them had any modesty, they would not presume, after so brief a residence, and without any identification with the interests of our people, to clamor for the highest offices in the State.

If Gen. Abbott's three years sojourn, and Col. Heaton's five years sojourn, in North Carolina, have qualified them to be our United States Senators, why is it that, after a life-long residence in Ohio and New Hampshire, they were not considered qualified to represent those States?

However, we have no disposition to interfere. We had as soon see this class of Radicals sent to the Senate as the indigenous material. When it comes to carpet-bag vs. scallawag, it is a bear fight.

Parrots climb by their big bills. Radical claimants against the government mount to fortune by theirs.—Lou. Jour.

RECONSTRUCTION.

The following is the Omnibus Bill, as passed by Congress. It is now before the President:

"AN ACT to Admit the States of North Carolina, South Carolina, Louisiana, Georgia, Alabama, and Florida, to Representation in Congress.

"WHEREAS, the people of North Carolina, South Carolina, Louisiana, Georgia, Alabama, and Florida have, in pursuance of the provisions of an act, entitled 'An act for the more efficient government of the rebel States,' passed March second, eighteen hundred and sixty-seven, and the acts supplementary thereto, framed constitutions of State government, which are republican, and have adopted said constitutions by large majorities of the votes cast at the elections held for the ratification or rejection of the same: Therefore "Be it enacted, &c., That each of the States of North Carolina, South Carolina, Louisiana, Georgia, Alabama, and Florida shall be entitled and admitted to representation in Congress as States of the Union, when the Legislatures of said States respectively shall have duly ratified the amendment to the Constitution of the United States proposed by the Thirty-ninth Congress, and known as article fourteen, upon the following fundamental conditions: That the Constitutions of neither of said States shall ever be so amended or changed as to deprive any citizen or class of citizens of the United States of the right to vote in said State, who are entitled to vote by the Constitution thereof herein recognized, except as a punishment for such crimes as are now felonies at common law, whereof they shall have been duly convicted under laws equally applicable to all the inhabitants of said State: Provided, That any alteration of said Constitutions, prospective in its effect, may be made with regard to the time and place of residence of voters; and the State of Georgia shall only be entitled and admitted to representation upon this further fundamental condition: that the first and third subdivisions of section seventeen of the fifth article of the Constitution of said State, except the proviso to the first subdivision, shall be null and void, and the General Assembly of said State, by solemn public act, shall declare the assent of the State to the foregoing fundamental condition.

"SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That if the day fixed for the meeting of the Legislature of either of said States by the Constitution or ordinance thereof shall have passed, or have so nearly arrived before the passage of this act that there shall not be time for the Legislature to assemble at the period fixed, such Legislature shall convene at the end of twenty days from the time this act takes effect, unless the Governor elect shall sooner convene the same.

"SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That the first section of this act shall take effect as to each State (except Georgia) when such State shall by its Legislature duly ratify article fourteen of the amendments to the Constitution of the United States proposed by the Thirty-Ninth Congress; and as to the State of Georgia, when it shall, in addition, give the assent of said State to the fundamental condition hereinbefore imposed upon the same; and thereupon the officers of such State duly elected and qualified under the Constitution thereof shall be inaugurated without delay; but no person prohibited from holding office under the United States, or under any State, by section three of the proposed amendment to the Constitution of the United States known as article fourteen, shall be deemed eligible to any office in either of said States, unless relieved from disability as provided in said amendment; and it is hereby made the duty of the President, within ten days after receiving official information of the ratification of said amendment by the Legislature of either of said States, to issue a proclamation announcing that fact."

A CHASE MEETING IN PHILADELPHIA.—On Wednesday a meeting of citizens of all political parties throughout the country, favorable to the nomination of Chief Justice Chase as President of the United States by the Democratic Convention, which meets in New York on the Fourth of July next, was held at the Continental Hotel, in Philadelphia. The Age says:

"On motion of John Welsh, Hon. Frederick P. Stanton, of Virginia, was called to the chair. A Committee of three was appointed to select permanent officers, who reported for President Hon. Wm. S. Price, of Pennsylvania; Vice Presidents, John J. Cisco, New York; Chas. D. Freeman, Pennsylvania; Enoch T. Carson, Ohio; Wm. Prescott Smith, Maryland; Hon. Fred P. Stanton, Virginia; John Paul, M. D., Illinois; Amasa Sprague, Rhode Island; T. H. Sweetzer, Massachusetts; Hon. James R. Doolittle, Wisconsin; Gen. A. L. Jeffries, District Columbia; Edward T. Latham, New Jersey; Hon. Jas. Dixon, Connecticut; Gen. S. W. Crawford, Kentucky. Secretaries—Jno. W. Frazier, Philadelphia; John J. O'Brien, New York; Wm. J. Hawley, N. Y.; John Oberly, Illinois. A committee of nine was appointed on resolutions, consisting of Chas. D. Freeman, David W. Sellers, Alexander Long, Fred P. Stanton, William Howard, J. P. Tucker, Edward T. Latham, Fred Schicy and Wm. S. Hawley, who reported the following, which were adopted unanimously:

"Whereas, we, as citizens of the several States, irrespective of our political affiliation, believe that the learning, experience, ability and purity of Chief Justice Chase are an assurance of an administration conformable to the Constitution, if he should be chosen President; and that we believe, if presented to the people of our country for their suffrage, they would cordially unite upon him as one in whom they might hope for a happy reconciliation of the people of all the States under the just and benign provisions of our federal Constitution: Therefore

"Resolved, That we desire Chief Justice Chase for the next President of the Union, and support, and that a committee of one hundred be appointed to promote his nomination by the Democratic Convention, which meets in New York on the 4th of July next."

After which, a committee of one hundred, with Charles G. Halpine as chairman, was appointed to convey the proceedings to the Democratic Convention in New York. The meeting then adjourned."

WELL ANSWERED.—Stephen Slade, a negro well known in this county as one of the best farm hands and tobacco curers in all this section, was "had up" before the United States officer at Yanceyville, to answer charges of 'intimidating' colored men in the late election against voting the radical ticket. After an amount of questioning, and all to no purpose—the officer asked:

"What was your reason, sir, for voting the Conservative ticket?"

"Am I a free man, sir?" inquired Stephen.

"Certainly you are, sir," replied the officer.

"Then, sir, if I'm a free man—I shall keep my reason to myself." And Stephen kept it.—Milton Chronicle.

Butler's compliment that Bingham is an acknowledged "lady-killer" is returned by Bingham in the declaration that no man surpasses Butler in his "taking ways."

ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,
OF HARTFORD, CONN.

ASSETS, $9,000,000.

No. POLICIES 52,700

DIVISIBLE SURPLUS $1,884,768,51.

DIVIDENDS 50 per cent.

In these days of competition between Life Insurance Companies, much is said by rival Agents, each claiming the Company he represents to be the best,—without saying anything in disparagement of any Company, or, by simple assertion, anything in its favor, the ÆTNA begs leave to refer to the annexed table, compiled from the OFFICIAL and sworn statements of twenty of the largest Companies in America, made to the Insurance Commissioners of the State of New York. The table shows the ratio of expense to each $100 received by each Company, for the three years ending January 1, 1868.

It will be seen that the expenses of the Ætna are much lower than any other Company; and, after the average is struck, the ÆTNA, in 1865, saved $10 41 out of each $100 received—more than the average; in 1866, $7.17, and in 1867, $4 90. Consequently, its savings in the three years were $7,555,376, to which add 7 per cent. interest to July 1, 1868: $120,267.64, making a grand total of $797,267 93 saved over the average of all other Companies.

This is the measure of success, as applied by the Hon Elizur Wright, the greatest of American actuaries, to all Companies, and simply means that the Company whose ratio of expense to the income is the least, is the best able to pay large dividends to its policy holders. That the Ætna is that Company, these comparisons of official statements plainly show.

Official Statement showing the Expenses and Losses by the Twenty Largest Insurance Companies in America.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

TUESDAY, JUNE 16, 1868.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—The next Session of Henderson Collegiate Institute,(Fred. A. Fetter, A. M., Principal, assisted by his brother,) will commence on Wednesday, the 1st. of July. We are pleased to learn that this excellent school is in a most flourishing condition. During the last year the number of students was fifty seven, and the prospects for the next session are highly encouraging. The advantages presented by this Institution, in locality, course of instruction, &c., are of the best character, every way.

Notice of administration on estate of Patrick Ferrall, deceased: Margaret Ferrall, Admx.

ICE CREAM.—Bradly & Christophers, Fayetteville Street, will be prepared, in a day or two, to furnish the public with ice cream,—so refreshing and inviting, these hot, sultry days. It is their intention to fit up a saloon over their establishment in neat style, where ladies and gentlemen can recall and enjoy this luxury. They will also be prepared to furnish it in quantities for families and entertainments. Our young friends are in the habit of succeeding in what they undertake, and we have no doubt but that they will give the community something particularly nice.

FINE CABBAGE.—We are indebted to R. C. Badger, Esq, for a splendid cabbage from his garden. It weighed 9 pounds, five oz., and measured three feet. It was seeded in October, and for several weeks he has had cabbage upon his table. By proper care and attention in this climate, most of us might grow vegetables at all seasons.

LIVE DEER.—A live deer was sold in our market, on Saturday last, for $10. We learn that it was purchased and sent to a friend in Washington City, by Express, by Mr. Register in Bankruptcy, Provost Judge, member of Congress elect, and late Col. in the Union Army, J. T. Deweese. Who else but a fat office-holder can buy deer these times?

RANDOLPH MACON.—The Commencement exercises of Randolph Macon College will take place on the 25th inst. Addresses will be delivered by the Rev. John S. Long, of the North Carolina Conference, and Rev. Wm. E. Munsey, of the Baltimore Conference.

The Raleigh & Gaston Railroad has agreed to charge only one fare for persons attending Commencement. Conveyances will be at the Clarksville Junction for the Trustees and parties informing the President of the College of their intention to attend the Commencement.

The meeting of the Board of Trustees will take place Wednesday, the 24th inst. As matters of the gravest importance will be before the Board, it is earnestly desired that all of the N. C. Trustees will be in attendance. They should get to the College by Tuesday night.

STATE NEWS.

The Executive Conservative Committee of Petersburg have invited Gov. Vance to address the people of that town at some early day, to be named by himself. We hope that he will be able to comply. "Zeb" would rouse the goodly citizens of the old "Cockade."

A saw-mill, on the Seaboard Road, was blown up on Friday, killing the engineer and fireman, and wounding several others.

A three of fine yellow leaf tobacco was stolen from the barn of Mrs. Thos. Brandon, in Caswell, one day last week. Two negroes were arrested, who had confessed the theft to another negro acquaintance.

A young negro man was murdered near Enfield, on Tuesday last, by a negro boy.—The particulars, as we learn them from the Roanoke News, are as follows:

"The two negroes were boiling together two pieces of meat, and upon the meat being taken out of the pot one piece was found to be larger than the other, whereupon a dispute arose as to whose was the larger. The dispute grew into a quarrel, when the younger, a boy of some seventeen years of age, drew a knife and stabbed the other, inflicting a wound in the heart, which produced instant death. The murderer was arrested and lodged in the jail at Halifax."

The Conservative members elect to the Legislature from Caswell have received from Gen. Canby certificates of election, accompanied with the "iron-clad" to subscribe and return. Mr. Hodnett has qualified (and he can do it honestly) and forwarded certificate. None of the other gentleman can take it.

Fowler has been obliged to change his seat over to the Democratic side of the Senate Chamber. Chandler persisted in whispering to Cameron across Fowler's desk, and he couldn't stand the talk or the smell of whiskey.—Boston Post.

TRINITY COLLEGE COMMENCEMENT.

For the first time in fifteen years, we hail a rainy Commencement, a circumstance so unexpected, so contrary to experience and so little to be desired, that everybody seemed to think constantly that the rain would cease. But, notwithstanding the constant rain on Wednesday, and a showery afternoon on Thursday, the College Chapel was full on the former, and would not hold half the people on the latter, day. I do not know any place in the State that always commands such a vast assemblage as Trinity. Whoever goes there to Commencement will always see an immense crowd of the elite of the land. This year the number of visitors, both ladies and gentlemen, was larger than usual. Almost every part of the State contributed a portion. While Newbern, Raleigh, Fayetteville, and other places, were represented, Greensboro, High Point, Thomasville, Salem, Lexington and Charlotte, seemed to vie with each other in beautiful ladies. Perhaps, Greensboro predominated in numbers; as to beauty, I attempt no decision. The Conference was well represented in preachers, and the whole country in influential citizens.

Commencement was inaugurated on Sunday, June 7th., by a sermon from Rev. J. E. Mann, to the Theological Society. It was an interesting hour. The Society is connected with the Biblical Department, is very flourishing and will effect much good. As the young men, eighteen in number, took their places before the rostrum, a thrilling sensation seemed to pervade the entire congregation. Mr. Mann's text was 1 Cor. 2 ch, 16 ver.: "But we have the mind of Christ." The sermon was in every sense appropriate to the occasion and the circumstances. While the preacher used no display of profound metaphysics and wild German theories, he showed a depth and accuracy of thought equal to the entertainment of the most intellectual; his style is a kind of compact elegance not very common in pulpit orators, and his taste is manifest in the use of ornament, not overmuch, yet instructive as well as beautiful. Mr. Mann's manner is that of a true Christian orator, sufficiently polished for the most fastidious, yet grand and impressive as becomes a preacher of the Gospel. But best of all, the sermon was full of the Holy Ghost. It was a sermon, not a speech.—Many hearts were moved with power, and all rose up stronger for life's journey. It is understood that a copy of the sermon has been asked for publication, and we hope the request will be granted.

Monday night and Tuesday night were devoted to declamation by the lower classes, and were seasons of great enjoyment to the large numbers present on each occasion. Wednesday morning, at 10½ o'clock, the sermon to the Graduating Class was preached by Bishop Doggett, from Ephesians, 4th. chap. and 21st. verse: "The truth is in Jesus." To describe Bishop Doggett, his manner or his matter, to North Carolinians, is superfluous. He avoids a very common error usual on all such occasions, viz: abstruse metaphysical or doctrinal disquisitions. People go to Commencements for enjoyment, not for grave instructions, and many speakers fail by attempting what no one wishes to hear. The Bishop was in his best vein, and perhaps never did better. He is, as all know, a finished scholar, and while the sermon showed the finely chiseled thought, it glowed with the unction of a true Bishop. Some portions were thrillingly eloquent, and electrified the vast congregation present. It was a decided, grand success, and all in less than one hour.

At 3 o'clock the address to the Literary Societies was delivered by Hon. John Kerr, of Caswell. The subject was: "The Force of Character," and few men ever said more or said it better than Judge Kerr did in fifty minutes. The address had been carefully prepared, and was a gem of the rarest water. His manner was superb, like John Kerr in his brightest, most brilliant hours, and like no other man. Some of his bursts of eloquence were indescribable; certainly no living man can look more eloquent than Judge Kerr, as he pauses to clothe some brilliant thought in appropriate diction. Everybody seemed to be sorry when he finished, and the same audience would go farther to hear the same address than they would before they heard it on that day.

At night there were seven original speeches by members of the Sophomore Class, and the young gentlemen certainly acquitted themselves very handsomely. Messrs. Adams, Harriss and Gaither were specially complimented. One thing in the whole Commencement struck all the observant very forcibly, viz: the high finish of all the speakers. There was no mannerism, no Sophomorean declamation, but nature thoroughly cultured and wonderfully effective.

Thursday was the great day. The Chapel was beautifully decorated, so much so that it was the delight and praise of all. The rostrum presented a grand array of intellect and position and the audience was radiant with beauty. The following was the programme of the day:

VOCAL MUSIC.

PRAYER—By Bishop Doggett.

SALUTATORY—Latin.—By Joseph Clark Brown, Trinity.

THE GIFTED ARE THE GIVERS—By James Terry Legrand, Richmond.

ENTHUSIASM IS TALENT—By Alvis H. Stokes, Caswell.

MARIE ANTOINETTE—French.—By John DeJarnett Pemberton, Richmond.

PIETY, AN ELEMENT OF SUCCESS—By Joseph Lewis Keene, Wilmington.

THE TIMES DEMAND MEN—By John Richard Webster, Madison.

INTELLECTUAL GROWTH.—By Thomas Richard Purnell, Wilmington.

PHILOPATRIA, GREEK ORATION—By William Thomas Swann, Caswell.

BE NOT CONTENT WITH LITTLE—By William Kelly Gibbs, Davie.

WHO ARE HEROES?—By Henry Clay Thomas, Thomasville.

NEW ELEMENTS OF THE AGE—By Samuel Rufus Holton, Guilford.

ANNUAL REPORT—DEGREES AND MEDALS CONFERRED.

VALEDICTORY—By John Franklin Heitman, Lexington.

BENEDICTION—By the Bishop.

Trinity is noted for its fine speaking, but this far exceeded all former occasions. The Bishop and other distinguished gentlemen declared on the rostrum publicly that they had never heard it surpassed at any Institution. The speeches were really valuable productions, and were delivered in a superb manner. I have never seen any assembly so enthused by Commencement speaking. The tables on the rostrum were literally loaded with splendid bouquets before the speaking was over. It is very difficult to make any distinction, all did so well, perhaps Messrs. LeGrand, Stokes, Keene, Webster and Gibbs, received most applause, and of these Mr. Gibbs swept the field, with a perfect storm. Yet even this discrimination is unjust to the others; each, while speaking, seemed to be best.

Bachelor of Arts was bestowed on J. F. Heitman, of Lexington, and he also received a certificate at having completed the studies in the Biblical Department.

Bachelor of Science was given to J. C. Brown, S. R. Holton and H. C. Thomas.

The honorary degree of Master of Arts was conferred upon Rev. Wesley M. Roby, of the North Carolina Conference, and upon Rev. E. J. Meynardie, of Charlotte.

The Commencement this year was a proud day for Trinity; not only the Methodist, but all the people of the State, may justly be proud of such a College. The high tone and deep piety of the Institution are wonderful and delightful, and everything is in every way pleasant. The choir commenced the exercises of the day with a piece of vocal music of rarest excellence and execution; we have never heard anything better. Prof. Carr, who leads the choir, can certainly sing, and can teach others to do the same, and Miss Craven performs on the Melodeon most elegantly. The Thomasville Band was present during the whole Commencement, and added much to the entertainment. They were frequently applauded, and are not only a handsome choir of young men, but are a fine Band, and deserve general favor.

The Commencement was closed by a magnificent party at night. The large grove was splendidly illuminated by colored lights, the band made delicious music, and such an array of beauty is rarely seen.

The Chief Marshall, C. F. Siler, and the Chief Manager, W. A. Webster, and their assistants, were polite and attentive, and managed everything handsomely, and the inevitable Frazer, the prince of proprietors, conveyed everybody in fine coaches from and to High Point with safety and facility, and at very reasonable rates.

Thus passed the Commencement. It is understood that the Trustees have inaugurated active and efficient measures to extend the College buildings, enlarge the Faculty, and otherwise meet the growing interest in Trinity. They are very energetic men, and we shall expect no small progress in a short time. A large increase of patronage is already evident, and everything is hopeful and full of life.

[Special to the Richmond Dispatch.]

MR. MOTT AND GENERAL M'MAHON REQUEST THE PRESIDENT TO WITHDRAW THEIR NOMINATIONS FOR MINISTERS TO COSTA RICA AND PARAGUAY.

WASHINGTON, June 13, 1868.

On Monday next the President will withdraw from the Senate the nomination of Mr. Mott as minister to Costa Rica, at the request of the nominee, who finds he cannot be confirmed.

General McMahon, of New York, nominated Minister to Paraguay, also asks that his nomination be withdrawn for the same reason, and requests that he be named as Minister to Mexico, for which he believes he can be confirmed. It is not likely that the President will comply with the last mentioned request.

BEVERDY JOHNSON WILL NOT RESIGN HIS SEAT IN THE SENATE AT PRESENT.

Senator Johnson, Minister elect to England, will, at the request of the President, remain in the Senate for a few days before offering his resignation as Senator. The object is to have the aid of Beverly Johnson in certain legislation of Congress now pending.

MR. EVARTS TENDERED THE OFFICE OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.

The President has tendered the office of Attorney General to Mr. Evarts, who is now here, but he has not decided to accept the nomination.

WHO ARE THE MASTERS CONGRESSMEN OR THE PEOPLE.—During the last twenty-four hours the rotten suffrage plank in the Chicago platform has received some terrible knocks from Radical Senators which are not calculated to strengthen the no policy Grant-and-Colfax ticket. Mr. Sumner, in the night session of the Senate last night, made a strong speech in favor of the Congressional enactment of Universal Suffrage on all of the Northern States, and to-day Mr. Yates, of Illinois, followed in a more earnest and bitter Radical speech in the same direction. He argued the right of Congress to impose conditions of admission upon States, and the perfect control of that body over the question of suffrage in all the States. He contended that the Senators who voted for the bill which passed yesterday and who voted for the Colorado bill had committed themselves to this principle. If they had the right to control the suffrage in the States of the South, they had the right to control it in the States of the North, and there was no possible evasion of this point. Congress had the right to enforce by laws a republican government in every State of the Union, whether admitted or to be admitted. This power is vested in Congress by the Constitution, and it requires Congress by laws necessary and proper to carry into execution that power. He continued in support of this view for an hour and a half, and excited the fears of the weak-kneed Republicans not a little.—Wash. Cor. N. Y. World.

And now Mr. Charles E. Moss, who makes Wendell Phillips' newspaper the medium of his communications, is after the "loil" carpet-baggers of New Orleans with a sharp stick. He represents the "ring" in that city to be one of the most dangerous and corrupt in the whole country. The candidates for the United States Senate are scoundrels, and their election "would be a scandal and do much to make reconstructions odious in the eyes of the nation." All this is superfluous; the character of these carpet baggers is the same in all the Southern States; they are vermin that attach themselves to the "body politic" for the sake of feeding; and it is certainly supererogatory to talk of corruption in a crew, specimens of which were sent to Chicago with a thousand dollars apiece in their pockets to vote for Durant as their candidate for the Vice-Presidency, and then sold out the entire "loil" delegation of Louisiana to Fenton for fourteen hundred dollars.—N. Y. World.

DID THE SOUTH SECEDE.—It is a significant fact, that of the ten Southern States now about to be "admitted," Georgia was in the Union before Massachusetts, South Carolina before New Hampshire, Virginia before New York, North Carolina before Rhode Island, Louisiana before Indiana, Mississippi before Illinois, Alabama before Maine, Arkansas before Michigan, Florida before Iowa, and Texas before Wisconsin. We give the dates of their admission:

Georgia,	January 2, 1788
South Carolina,	May 23, 1788
Virginia,	June 26, 1788
North Carolina,	November 21, 1789
Louisiana	April 8, 1812
Mississippi,	December 10, 1817
Alabama,	December 14, 1819
Arkansas,	June 15, 1836
Florida,	March 3, 1845
Texas,	December 29, 1845

When did they get out?—N. Y. World.

Several eminent citizens of Berlin have recently given a dinner to the German Customs' Parliament and to Bismarck, and of the one hundred and forty subscribers to the dinner no less than ninety were Jews, which, in connection with the fact that nearly one third of the members of the Prussian Parliament were Jews, is advanced as evidence that the Jews are becoming very prominent in German politics. There is no H. U. Grant in that country to issue special orders to ostracise this class of citizens.—N. Y. World.

AN ADMISSION.—The Washington Chronicle believes that a majority of the men who have remained in the United States army, or have enlisted since the advent of peace, are favorable to the "Conservatives." The "party" may not, therefore, show much favor to the "rank and file," whatever they may do for the officers.

MEETING OF THE CLOUDS.

FROM THE MANUSCRIPTS OF THE LATE HON. FRANKLIN HAWKS, D.D.

"Come, boy, your hand, let's stand awhile
Beneath this ancient tree.
And gaze upon that gath'ring host
Of Heaven's artillery;
Let's watch those columns as they form,
Solid and black as night,
And rush, like war gods, up yon sky,
Armed with the thunder's might.

"Father, I see them; is not God
Upon that battle-field?
And that the echo of his voice—
The planting of his shield?
For God is good, and just, and true,
And would not harm a foe;
Why, therefore, should I fear to stand
With you beneath this tree?"

"You're right, my boy, but lo! how still
Is nature in repose!
As if afraid to stir a leaf
Or check those thunder-foes!
Now flash meets flash from each fierce host,
And onward as it breaks,
Army to army answers back
The musketry it takes!"

"Father, I tremble not! Have I
Heard you or mother say,
That when two thunder clouds like these
Meet in their dread array,
Tempest and death descend to earth—
Uproot the stoutest oak
And lay God's noblest creature—man—
Prostrate beneath the stroke?"

"You have, my boy; but look once more—
The thunderers close at last;
Each column with his lightning spear
Has grappled in the blast;
Tumbles the cataract from their wings—
Down sweeps 'th unfettered storm—
Your hand, boy! God of Heaven 'tis so!
There lies his stricken form!"

* * * * * * *

"Father, where am I? In the cloud
By thunder-spirits led?
Or pillowed on her sainted breast,
One of the joyous dead?
Or, am I still your living boy,
And do I breathe as free
As when, my hand in yours, I stood
Beneath the ancient tree?"

"The same, my boy; yon clear, mild sky,
Where thunders broke but now,
And lightnings curled their spiral sheets
O'er Heaven's majestic brow,
Looks down to chide thee with a love
That God alone can feel,
For trembling with a doubt that He
E'er chastens but to heal!"

From the Scientific American.

NEW ENGLAND LATHE.

A very ingenious and effective lathe for engraving upon copper, steel, wood, and other substances is now in operation at 207 Pearl street, New York city, which is worthy the attention of all who are interested in the reproduction of art. The machine is the invention of Messrs. Guerrant and Field, of North Carolina, who have come North seeking for the necessary business talent and pecuniary aid to put their invention into extensive use. To engrave by means of this machine the operator sits with a copy of the drawing, photograph, or whatever design is to be engraved, directly in front of him. A small pointer rests upon the drawing, and the whole operation consists in moving the pointer over the several lines of the copy. The pointer is operated by two small cranks, one of which produces a vertical and the other a lateral movement; the simultaneous operation of both cranks producing a circular, inclined, or any desired irregular motion of the pointer, which is thus made to "follow copy." All the movements of the pointer are imparted by means of a very simple arrangement of levers to a graver which cuts or engraves the design upon the surface of a copper plate or block. Thus in a rapid manner even an unskilled person, having a drawing before him, may engrave the same in superior style. The swelled lines as well as hair lines of copper plate writing may be produced with the utmost freedom, and there seems to be no limit to the execution of the finest and most difficult as well as the simplest kinds of work. It makes no difference whether the surface to be engraved is flat, circular, or irregular. We have seen the whole of the Lord's Prayer engraved by this machine upon the interior of an ordinary finger ring, every letter being perfectly formed and legible under a magnifying glass, but too small to be read by the unassisted eye. For jewelry work, the ornamentation of metals, the production of copper, steel, and wood engravings for letter press, and many other purposes, this invention seems to be well adapted.

NEW ARRANGEMENT

FOR THE

SENTINEL.

Published in the City of Raleigh, N. C.,

Daily, Semi Weekly and Weekly.

William E. Pell, } Editors.
Seaton Gales, }

In view of the scarcity of money, and the severity of the times, the Proprietor of the SENTINEL has determined to reduce the terms of the paper, to commence after the 31st. DECEMBER, next, and to make such improvements in its general character as will commend it to the patronage of an enlightened public.

In POLITICS it will be thoroughly Conservative, advocating, at all times:

A strict observance of the Constitution of the United States, and the harmonious Union of equal States;

Obedience to law and the enforcement of order;

The supremacy of the civil over the military, in time of peace;

The equality of the three co ordinate branches of the government;

The sovereignty of the States over their own internal affairs, in strict conformity to the Constitution;

The maintenance of freedom and justice to all, without distinction of color, but the supremacy of the white race as the governing class;

Opposition to Radicalism in all its phases.

As a NEWS journal, it shall be equal to any.—The principal markets will be regularly published.

Its LITERARY character shall be maintained and improved, by contributions from our best writers.

Finally, the SENTINEL will seek to be the special promoter of the educational, moral and economical interests of the people of North Carolina.

GENERAL REMARKS.

Revenue stamps may be used indiscriminately upon any of the matters or things enumerated in Schedule B., except proprietary and playing card stamps, for which a special use has been provided.

Postage stamps cannot be used in payment of the duty chargeable on instruments.

It is the duty of the maker of an instrument to affix and cancel the stamp thereon. If he neglects to do so, the party for whom it is made, may stamp it before it is used; and if used after the 30th of July, 1864, and used without a stamp, it cannot afterwards be effectually stamped. Any failure upon the part of the maker of an instrument, to appropriately stamp it, renders him liable to a penalty of two hundred dollars.

Suits are commenced in many States by other process than writ, viz: summons, warrants, publication, &c., in which case these, as the original process, severally require stamps.

Writs of scire facias are subject to stamp duty as original process.

The jurat of an affidavit, taken before a Justice of the Peace, Notary Public, or other officer duly authorized to take affidavits, is held to be a certificate, and is subject to a stamp duty of five cents, except when taken in suits of legal proceedings.

Certificates of loan in which there shall appear any printed or written evidence of an amount of money to be paid on demand or at any time designated, are subject to stamp duty as Promissory Notes.

The assignment of a mortgage is subject to the same duty as that imposed upon the original instrument; that is to say, for every sum of five hundred dollars, or any fractional part thereof, of the amount secured by the mortgage, at time of its assignment, there must be affixed a stamp or stamps, denoting a duty of five cents.

When two or more persons join in the execution of an instrument, the stamps to which this instrument is liable, under the law, may be affixed and cancelled by one of the parties,

In conveyance of real estate, the law provides that the stamp affixed must answer to the value of the estate or interest conveyed.

No stamp is required on warrant of attorney accompanying a bond or note, when such bond or note has affixed thereto the stamp or stamps denoting the duty required, and whenever any bond or note is secured by mortgage, but one stamp duty is required on such papers, such stamp duty being the highest rates required for such instruments, or either of them. In such case a note or memorandum of the value or denomination of the stamp affixed should be made upon the margin or in the acknowledgment of the instrument which is not stamped.
